DEMOCRACY

Szczepański Square, Kraków

Rejoice and celebrate Polish Independence Day with the democrats – those who stand for our shared European values.

You are most welcome to join us in Szczepański Square at 1.30 pm.

CHCEMY
DEMOKRAJCJI

As we commemorate the events when Poland regained independence, we come together united – all of us who have a democratic and European Poland at heart. We want to make a statement that the opposition is aware of the danger and the weight of their responsibility for the state, as well as acknowledging the need to shelve ambitions and give up grudges.

On this day we gather for POLAND to show our willingness to work for the common good.
